

Nabil Khan

Portland, Oregon | Nabilkhan@lclark.edu | (503) 475-0416

Education

Lewis & Clark College, Portland, OR

Bachelor of Arts, Major: Computer Science

Minor: Middle East and North African studies

Expected May 2021

Overseas program, Morocco Regional Area Study: Morocco

Jan-Apr 2019

Relevant coursework: Computer Science I (C), Computer Science II (Java), Computer Graphics (C), Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning (Python), Web Design and Development, Computer Architecture

Awards: Lewis & Clark Outreach Scholarship, Trustee Endowed Scholarship, Ford Family Foundation Scholarship

SKILLS

Languages

- Reading, writing, and speaking fluency in Pashto, Farsi, Arabic
- Conversational proficiency in Urdu

Coding: C, Java, Python, PHP, Javascript, HTML, CSS

Computer: Comfortable with Windows, Word, Excel, Linux, MySQL

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Oregon Senator Ron Wyden office, Portland, OR - Intern

July - Sep 2017

- Assisted staff of Ron Wyden's office with daily constituent calls and cases
- Occasional meetings with Senator Wyden during the internship
- General assistance with town hall meetings and office electronics

IT Technician, Lewis & Clark College IT

May 2019 - present

- Assisted the lead education technologist with weekly/monthly faculty projects
- Handled phone calls and faculty requests for assistance with classroom Computers/AV panels

LEADERSHIP & ADDITIONAL SKILLS

Academic English Studies (AES) Club, Lewis & Clark College,

Sep 2018 - Jan 2019

Portland, OR - President

- Recruited English tutors for international students aiming to learn English
- Handled club budget and weekly/monthly activities
- Represented AES club in other on campus student body organizations

Ford Family Foundation, Lewis & Clark College, Portland, OR - Mentor

Sep 2018-Jan 2019

- Assisted in guiding the freshmen scholarship recipients with transition to college
- Made sure the new recipients have good balance between academic and social aspect of college by being a resource for them to reach out to

Track & Field, Lewis & Clark College, Portland, OR - Hurdler

Feb - Apr 2018

- Ran varsity 110 meter high hurdles and varsity triple jump